The villa is spread over "two and a half" levels. From the spacious entrance area, which is located on the upper floor of the villa due to the slight slope, you enter the open dining area. Slightly separated by a counter, this is connected to a modern kitchen with plenty of storage space. On this level there is also a bright bedroom with built-in wardrobe and en-suite bathroom, equipped with both bathtub and shower. An additional guest toilet completes the rooms on this floor. Furthermore, all rooms have access to a spacious balcony with open views over the pool, garden and surrounding countryside.

A straight, open staircase leads from the dining room to the mezzanine level, where the stylish living room with gas fireplace is located. Large glass fronts lead out onto a terrace that is connected to the infinity pool and the manicured garden via a few steps – the perfect place to relax and enjoy. On the ground floor, towards the pool and garden, there are two more bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes and ensuite bathrooms and with direct access to the pool. This level is complemented by a hallway with additional built-in wardrobes.

The heart of the outdoor area is the infinity pool, which blends in beautifully with the idyllic landscape. The pool is surrounded by a beautifully landscaped garden that offers a lot of privacy. At the entrance to the property there is a covered carport and a large driveway with additional parking available.
